4 Duties to his Majesty,

ART. V.

If any Officer or Souldier shall abuse or prophane any Place dedicated to the Worship of God, or shall offer violence to any Chaplain of the Army, or any other Minister of Gods Word, he shall suffer such punishment as shall be inflicted on him by a Court-Martial.

But whoever shall take any of the Utensils or Ornaments belonging or dedicated to Gods Worship, in any Church or Chappel, shall suffer death for the Fact.

ART. VI.

After the Service of God Almighty, all Officers and Souldiers shall serve Us faithfully, to the best of their Skill, Power, and Understanding. And to that purpose, every one of them, of what Quality or Condition soever, shall for himself take the following Oath,

and Kingly Government. 9

Oath, which shall be administered by such Person or Persons, and in such Places, as Our Self or Our General shall appoint.

The Oath of Fidelity, to be taken by every Officer and Souldier in the Army.

I A.B. do swear to be true and faithful to my Sovereign Lord King CHARLES, and to His Heirs and lawful Successors, and to be obedient in all things to His General or Lieutenant General, for the time being; And will behave my self obediently towards my superiour Officers, in all they shall command me for His Majesties Service. And I do further swear, That I will be a true, faithful, and obedient Servant and Souldier, every way performing my best endeavours for His Majesties Service, obeying all Orders, and submitting to all such Rules and Articles of War, as are, or shall be established by his Majesty.

So help me GOD, &c.

ART. VII.

No Officer or Souldier shall use any Traiterous Words against the Sacred
Person of the Kings Most Excellent
Majesty upon pain of Death.

Whoever shall hold Correspondence with any of Our Enemies, and shall give them Advice or Intelligence, either by Letters, Messages, Signs, or Tokens, in any manner of way, whatsoever, shall suffer Death for it. And whatever Regiment, Troop, or Company, shall Treat with the Enemy, or enter into any Condition with them, without Our leave, or leave of Our General, or of the Chief Commander in his absence, the Officers of such

ART. XII.

He, who in the presence of Our General, Lieutenant-General, or other Commander in Chief, shall draw his Sword, with a purpose to do any Officer, or any of his Fellow-Souldiers a mischief, shall suffer such punishment as a Court-Martial shall think fit to inflict upon him for the said Offence.

ART. XIII.

Whoever shall presume to violate any Safe-conduct or Protection, given by Our General, Lieutenant-General, or other Commander in Chief of Our Forces (knowing the same) shall suffer Death, or such other punishment as shall be inflicted on him by Our General Court-Martial.

ART.

40 Duties towards Superiour

ART. XIX.

If any number of Souldiers shall presume to assemble to take Council amongst themselves for the demanding their Pay, any Inferiour Officers accessory thereunto shall suffer Death for it as the Heads and Ringleaders of such mutinous and seditious Meetings; and the Souldiers shall be punished, either with Death or otherwise, at the discretion of Our General Court-Martial. And if any Captain, being privy thereunto, shall not suppress the same, or complain of it, he shall likewise be punished with Death or otherwise, as Our General Court-Martial shall think fit.

ART. XX.

No Officer or Souldier shall utter any words tending to Sedition, Mutiny, or Uproar, upon pain of suffering ring such punishment as shall be inflicted on him by a Court-Martial.

And whosoever shall hear any mutinous or seditious words spoken, and shall not with all possible speed reveal the same to his Superiour Officers or Commanders, shall be punished as a Court-Martial shall think fit.

ART. XVI.

If any Inferiour Officer or Souldier shall refuse to obey his Superiour Officer, or shall quarrel with him, he shall be Cashier'd, or suffer such punishment as a Court-Martial shall think fit. But if any Souldier shall presume to resist any Officer in the Execution of his Office, or shall strike, or lift up his hand to strike, or shall draw, or offer to draw, or lift up any Weapon against his Superiour Officer, upon any pretence whatsoever, he shall suffer Death, or other condign punishment, as Our General Court-Martial shall think fit.

ART.

IV
Duties in Marching.

ART. XVII.

Every Souldier shall keep silence when the Army is Marching, Embattelling, or taking up their Quarters, (to the end that their Officers may be heard, and their Orders executed) upon pain of Imprisonment, or such other punishment as a Court-Martial shall think fit, according to the circumstances and aggravation of the Fact.

ART. XVIII.

He who shall in anger draw his Sword, whilst his Colours are flying, either in Battel, or upon the March, unless it be against the Enemy, shall suffer such punishment as a Court-Martial shall think fit.

ART. XIX.

When any March is to be made, every Man

Man who is Sworn shall follow his Colours, and whoever shall (without leave) stay behind, or depart above a Mile from the Camp, or out of the Army, without license, shall suffer such punishment as shall be inflicted on him by a Court-Martial.

ART. XX.

When the Army, or any part of them, shall March through or Lodge in the Countrey, none of them shall extort Free Quarter or Money from them, or shall commit any Waste or Spoil, or cut down Fruit-Trees, de- face Walks of Trees, Parks, Warrens, Fish-Ponds, Houses, or Gardens, tread down or otherwise destroy standing Corn in the Ear, neither shall they put their Horses into Meadows without leave from their Chief Officer, upon pain of severe punishment. But if any Officer or Souldier shall wilfully burn any House, Barn, Stack of Corn, Hay,

Duties in Marching,

Hay, or Straw, or any Ship, Boat, or Carriage, or any thing which may serve for the Provision of the Army, without Order from the Commander in Chief, he shall suffer Death for it.

ART. XXI.

When the Army, or any part thereof, shall come to engage the Enemy in Fight, whoever shall run from his Colours (be he Native or Stranger) or doth not defend them to the utmost of his power, so long as they are in any danger, shall suffer Death for it. And whatsoever Souldier shall at any other time run away from his Colours, shall suffer Death, or such other punishment as Our General Court-Martial shall think fit.

ART. XXII.

If any Regiment, or Commanded Party, shall not behave themselves in Fight

Fight against an Enemy as they ought to do, they shall answer for it before Our General Court-Martial, and the Officer or Souldier, who shall be found faulty therein, shall suffer such punishment as shall be thought fit to be inflicted on them by Our General Court-Martial.

ART. XXIII.

When it shall please God that Our Forces shall beat the Enemy, every Man shall follow his Officer in the Chase, but whoever shall presume to Pillage or Plunder, till the Enemy be entirely beaten, and any Misfortune happen, he shall suffer Death, or such other punishment as shall be pronounced against him by Our General Court-Martial, and the Pillage so gotten shall be forfeited to the Use of the Sick and Maimed Souldiers.

16 Orders and Rules when

ART. XXIV.

When any Town or Place shall be taken (though by Assault) no Man shall presume to Pillage any Church or Hospital (without leave or necessary reason) much less to set fire to any Church, Hospital, School, or Mill; neither shall they offer violence to any Churchmen, aged Men, or Women, Maids or Children, unless they be found actually in Arms against them, upon pain of Death, or other punishment, at the discretion of Our General Court-Martial, but whoever shall force a Woman to abuse her (whether belonging to the Enemy or not) and the Fact be sufficiently proved against him, he shall certainly suffer Death for it.

ART. XXV.

In what Place soever it shall please God that the Enemy shall be subdued and

and overcome, all the Ordnance, Ammunition, and Victuals, that shall be there found, shall be secured for Our Use, and for the better Relief of the Army, and one Tenth part of all the Spoil shall be laid apart towards the Relief of the Sick and Maimed Soldiers.

ART. XXVI.

Whosoever shall take any General Officers as Prisoners, shall present them to Us, or Our General, who will reward them. And they who shall take other Prisoners, may keep to themselves the Officers and Volunteers, giving their Names to the Martial General; but shall not put them to Ransome, without Our, or Our General's leave. And they are immediately to send all private Souldiers so taken to the Martial General, who is to take them into custody,

ART. XXVII.

If any Souldiers shall be drunk in the Enemies Quarters, before they have wholly laid down their Arms, and yielded to Mercy, and any hurt or mischief ensue thereon, such drunken Souldiers shall suffer Death for it, or such other punishment as Our General Court-Martial shall think fit; but if no dammage ensue thereby, they shall be laid in Irons, and live on Bread and Water for the space of three days.

ART. XXVIII.

All Officers, whose Charge it is, shall see the Quarters kept clean and neat, upon pain of severe punishment.

No Officer shall lye out all Night from from the Camp or Garrison, without his Superiour Officer's leave obtained for the same, upon pain of being punished for it as a Court-Martial shall think fit. Neither shall any Souldier or Officer go any by-way to the Camp, other than the common way laid out for all, upon pain of being punished as aforesaid.

But if any Officer shall without leave, be absent from his Quarters a Week, he shall lose one months Pay; and if longer, he shall be discharged of his Command, or Place, as a Man unfit to bear Office in the Army.

ART. XXX.

No Souldier shall presume to make any Alarm in the Quarter, by shooting off his Musquet in the Night, after the Watch is set, unless it be at an Enemy, upon pain of suffering such punishment, as a Court-Martial shall think fit.

Duties in Camp,

ART. XXXI.

No Souldier shall in anger draw his Sword in any Camp, Post, or Garrison, upon pain of suffering such punishment as a Court-Martial shall think fit to inflict upon him for the same.

ART. XXXII.

When warning is given for setting the Watch, by Beat of Drum, or Sound of Trumpet or Fife, if any Souldier shall absent himself without reasonable cause, he shall be punished by Riding a Wooden Horse, or otherwise, at the discretion of the Commander.

And whatever Souldier shall fail at the Beating of a Drum, or the Sound of a Trumpet or Fife, or upon an Alarm given, to repair to his Colours, with his Arms decently kept and well fix'd, (unless there be an evident necessity sity to hinder him from the same) he shall either be clapp'd in Irons for it, or suffer such other punishment as a Court-Martial shall think fit.

ART. XXXIII.

Whoever makes known the Watchword without order, or gives any other Word but what is given by the Officer, shall suffer Death, or such other punishment as Our General Court-Martial shall think fit.

ART. XXXIV.

A Centinel, who is found sleeping in any Post, Garrison, Trench, or the like (while he should be upon his Duty) shall suffer Death, or such other punishment as Our General Court-Martial shall by their Sentence inflict for the same.

And if a Centinel or Perdue shall forsake his Place, before he be relieved or drawn off, or upon discovery of an Enemy shall not give warning to his Quarters, according to direction, he shall suffer Death, or such other punishment as Our General Court-Martial shall think fit.

As likewise, if any Souldier employed as a Scout, shall not go upon that Service so far as he is commanded; or having discovered an Ambush or Approach of the Enemy, shall not return forthwith to give notice or warning to his Quarters, or if he enter into any House, and there or elsewhere be found sleeping or drunk, whilst he should have been upon the Service, he shall suffer Death, or such other punishment as shall be inflicted upon him by the Sentence of Our General Court-Martial.

ART. XXXV.

Whoever shall do violence to any who shall bring Victuals to the Camp or

or Garrison, or shall take his Horse or Goods, shall suffer Death, or such other punishment as he shall be sentenced to by Our General Court-Martial.

If any shall presume to beat or abuse his Host, or the Wife, Child, or Servant of his Host, where he is quartered or billeted, he shall be put in Irons for it: And if he do it a second time, he shall be further punished, and the Party wrong'd shall have amends made him: And if any presume to exact Free Quarter, without leave of the chief Officer upon the Place; they shall be severely punish'd at the discretion of a Court-Martial.

ART. XXXVI.

No Souldier or Officer shall use any reproachful or provoking speech or act to another, upon pain of Imprisonment, and such further punishment as a Court-Martial shall think fit.

Neither shall any Officer or Souldier presume presume to send a Challenge to any other Officer or Souldier, to fight a Duel; neither shall any Souldier or Officer presume to upbraid another for refusing a Challenge: For, whoever shall offend in either of these Cases, if he be an Officer, he shall lose his Place and Command, whatever it be; and if a private Souldier, he shall Ride the Wooden Horse, and be further punished as a Court-Martial shall think fit. And if any Corporal, or other Officer, commanding a Guard, shall willingly or knowingly, suffer either Souldiers or Officers, to go forth to a Duel, or private Fight, he shall be punished for it by the Sentence of a Court-Martial. Forasmuch as all Officers, of what condition soever, shall have power to part and quell all Quarrels, Frays, or sudden Disorders between Souldiers and Officers, though of another Company, Troop, or Regiment, and to commit the disorder'd Persons to Prison, until their proper Officers

Officers be acquainted therewith: And whoever shall resist such an Officer (though of another Company, Troop, or Regiment) or draw his Sword upon him, shall be severely punish'd, as Our General Court-Martial shall appoint. But if two or more going into the Field to fight a Duel, shall draw their Swords, or other Weapons, and fight, though neither of them fall upon the spot, nor dye afterwards of any wound there received, yet if they be Officers, they shall lose their Places; and if common Souldiers, they shall be punish'd with Riding the Wooden Horse, or otherwise as a Court-Martial shall direct. And lastly, in all cases of Duels, the Seconds shall be taken as Principals, and punish'd accordingly.

ART. XXXVII.

None shall be Mustered, but such as are compleatly Armed, viz. each Horseman to have for his defensive Arms

ART. LIX.

The Commission Officers of every Regiment may hold a Court-Martial for that Regiment, upon all necessary occasions.

There shall also be a Provost-Martial of every Regiment, who shall have the same Priviledges in his own Regiment as the Provost-Martial General hath in the Army or Camp; and such Fees also as the Court-Martial shall allow.

ART: 44.

Those who are Judges in Our Gen-

ral Court-Martial, or in Regimental Court-Martials; shall hold the same rank in those Courts as they do in the Army for orders sake; and they shall take an Oath for the due Administration of Justice according to these Articles, or (where these Articles assign no absolute punishment) according to their Consciences, the best of their Understandings, and the Custome of War in like Cases; and shall demean themselves orderly in the Hearing of Causes; (as becomes the Gravity of such a Court;) and before giving of Sentence, every Judge shall deliver his Vote or Opinion distinctly; and the Sentence is to be according to the plurality of Votes; and if there happen to be an equality of Votes, the President is to have a casting Vote.

And when Sentence is to be given; the President shall pronounce it; and after that the Sentence is pronounced, the Provost-Martial shall have Warrant to cause Execution to be done according to the Sentence.

ART.

ART. LXI.

At Our General Court-Martials, there shall be a Clerk, who is to be sworn to make true and faithful Records of all the Proceedings of that Court, and there shall be also such other Officers appointed, both for that, and also for the Regimental Court-Martials, as shall be necessary; and Our General Court-Martial may appoint and limit the Fees of Our Provost-Martial General, as they shall think fit.

ART. LXII.

All Controversies, either between Souldiers and their Captains or other Officers, or between Souldier and Souldier, relating to their Military Capacities, shall be summarily heard and determined at the next Court-Martial of the Regiment.

ART.

ART. LXIII.

In any matter which shall be adjudged in any of the aforesaid Regimental Court-Martials, either of the Parties that finds himself aggrieved may appeal to Our General Court-Martial; who are to take care, that if the Party appealing make not good his suggestion, recompence be made to the other for the trouble and charge of such an Appeal.

ART. LXIV.

In all criminal Causes, which concern Our Crown, Our Advocate General, or Judge Advocate of Our Army, shall inform the Court and prosecute on Our behalf.

ART. LXV.

No Officers or Soldiers shall presume to hinder the Provost-Martial, his Lieutenant, or Servants, in the Execution of that Office, upon pain of Death, or such other punishment as a Court Martial shall think fit. But on the contrary, all Captains, Officers and Souldiers, shall do their utmost to apprehend and bring to punishment all Offenders, and shall assist the Officers of Our Army for that purpose, especially the said Provost-Martial, his Lieutenant, and Servants. And if the Provost-Martial, or his Officers, require the assistance of any Officer or Souldier, in apprehending any Person, declaring to them that it is for a capital Crime, and the Party escape for want of aid and assistance, the Party or Parties refusing to aid or assist, shall suffer such punishment as a Court-Martial shall inflict.

ART. XXVI.

That Officer or Souldier, who shall presume presuming to draw his Sword in any Place of Judicature, while the Court is sitting, shall suffer such punishment as shall be inflicted on him by a Court-Martial. And We do hereby authorize Our Provost-Martial of Our Army, by his own Authority, to apprehend such Offenders. And if any Souldier being committed for any offence, shall break Prison, the said Provost-Martial General shall by his own Authority apprehend him, and the Offender shall suffer Death, or such other punishment as Our General Court-Martial shall think fit.

ART. LXXII. If any Fray shall happen within the Camp or Place of Garrison, in any of the Souldiers Lodgings, or where they meet, it shall be inquired into by the Officers of the Regiment, and the Beginners and Pursuers thereof punished according to the quality of the offence.

ART.

ART. LXVIII.

If any Inferiour Officer, either of Horse or Foot, be wrong'd by his Officer, he may complain to his Colonel, or other Superiour Officer of the Regiment, who is to redress the same, upon due proof made of the wrong done him; but if he fail therein, the Party grieved is to apply to the General Officer for redress: And if the Accusation be false, the Complainant is to be punish'd at the discretion of a Court-Martial.

ART. LXIX.

If any Colonel, or Captain, shall force or take any thing away from any private Souldier, that Colonel or Captain shall be punish'd according to the quality of the offence, by the Judgment of Our General Court-Martial. But if a Souldier shall be wrong'd, and shall not appeal to the Court, or his Superiour Commanders, but take his own satisfaction for it, he shall be punish'd by the Judgment of a Court-Martial.

ART. LXX.

If any Souldier dye, no other shall take or spoil his Goods, upon pain of restoring double the value to him to whom they belong, and of such further punishments as a Court-Martial shall think fit. But the Captain of the Company of which such a Souldier was, shall take the said Goods into his custody, and dispose of them for paying his Quarters, and to keep the over-plus (if any be) for the use of those to whom they belong, and who shall claim the same within three months after his Death. And if any Captain or Officer dye, the chief Commander shall take care of preserving his Estate in like manner.

ART. LXXI.

No Provost-Martial shall refuse to receive or keep a Prisoner sent to his charge by Authority, or shall dismiss him without order, upon pain of such punishment as a Court-Martial shall think fit. And if the offence for which his Prisoner was apprehended deserv'd Death, the Provost-Martial failing to receive and keep him as afore-said shall be liable to the same punishment.

ART. LXXII.

If any Person be committed by the Provost-Martials own Authority, without other command, he shall acquaint the General or other chief Commander with the cause thereof, within twenty four hours, and the Provost-Martial shall thereupon dismiss him, unless he have order to the contrary.

ART. LXXIII.

No Man shall presume to use any braving or menacing words, signs, or gestures, where any of the aforesaid Courts of Justice are sitting, upon pain of suffering such punishment as the Court-Martial shall think fit.

ART. LXXIV.

Whatever is to be published, or generally made known, shall be done by Beat of Drum or the Sound of Trumpet, that so no Man may pretend ignorance thereof. And after that, whoever shall be found disobedient, or faulty against what is thus published, shall be punish'd according to these Articles, or the quality of the Fact.
